

Remembrance Day

11th November 2015

In reception we have spent the day learning all about the meaning of this very important day, and how many people died in war. We had many questions for our teachers, and spent the day making poppy wreathes, and writing about things.

UW / C&L / EA&D / PSED /LIT