

In year 3 we have been learning how the ancient Egyptians made their dead into mummies. We learnt how the organs were removed and placed in Canopic Jars. In our topic lesson this week we made each other into mummies! We used paper pictures of the organs we had to remove and used tomato sauce to show the blood. We then placed bandages across the body. It was great fun!

