

On Tuesday 8th December, we made a pulley system in our design and technology day. We started by designing our pulley systems. Then we had to saw our wood pieces to make them the right size. After we hammered them into the base and added our cotton reels. Then we lifted a Lego brick with our pulley.

