

100% attendance at our Nursery Parents' Evening

He's come on leaps and bounds!

She has come on really well and is learning new things every day and getting so confident.

Our little girl is starting to grow into herself, noticed so much improvement.

I am a proud Mummy, you are learning so much you are a clever little girl. Keep it up!

She is starting to write her name
She loves Forest Friday and talks about it all the time.

She loves it here and would be here 24/7.

100% of our children have completed our Monty's Mission homework at least once. Our parents told us the children like doing homework as it makes them feel grown up.
