

Last half term the children found a travel chest in the classroom! They guessed it could belong to Florence Nightingale because we have been learning about her life. We opened the chest and found lots of interesting artefacts. The children enjoyed exploring the objects and learning new information about Florence Nightingale. They were surprised to discover she had a pet owl and enjoyed looking at some of her photographs.

